

Institute of Foreign Policy Studies

Analyzing Security: An Indo-European Perspective

19th January, 2012

Research Scholars' Conference (in collaboration with University of Warsaw)
(a part of the United Nations Academic Impact (UNAI) initiative)

IFPS auditorium, Calcutta University Alipore Campus (4th Floor)

Schedule

11:00-1:00

Session 1 : Tackling Traditional Security Threats

Chair: Prof. Jayanta Kumar Ray

Speakers :

1. Maciej Michalek (University of Warsaw) "The Question of A-bomb in South Asia- Comparison of different approaches"
2. Dwiya Saha (IFPS, University of Calcutta) "Small arms and Light Weapons Traffic in South Asia"
3. Chandreyee Chakraborty ( IFPS, University of Calcutta) "State Sponsored Terrorism in South Asia: The New Foreign Policy Tool"
4. Mingma Doma Sherpa ( IFPS, University of Calcutta) "The Shifts in the Security concern in Nepal; Alice lost in wonderland"

1:00 – 1:30

Lunch

1:30 – 3:30

Session 2 : Non-Traditional Security issues

Chair : Dr. Shantanu Chakrabarti

Speakers :

1. Krzysztof Antosik (University of Warsaw) "Impact of Nord Stream pipeline on Polish Energy Security: misperception or a real peril?"
2. Dominika Gmerek (University of Warsaw) "Migrations in Europe and India – Causes and Conducted Policies"
3. Agnieszka Rostkowska (University of Warsaw) "The coexistence of different religions in Europe and India – the security perspective"
4. Bandana Upadhyay ( IFPS, University of Calcutta) "Tackling threat to human security in South Asia: A Study into rehabilitation of the trafficked victims"