Fact Sheet of Zhejiang University (2013)

1. Websites:

University website: <http://www.zju.edu.cn>

Website for international students: <http://iczu.zju.edu.cn/english/default.html>

(please note that some of the information on the website of the International College is not applicable to exchange students, i.e. the scholarships, the application requirements and procedures)

Website of logistics:

2. University Calendar:

Please see the attached university calendar. At the same time, please note that the actual dates for registration for international students may be different from the dates indicated in the attachment. The exact dates and place for registration for exchange students will be confirmed in the admission letters for the students.

3. Orientation:

At the beginning of each new semester, right after the date of registration. Exchange students are strongly advised to take part in the orientation as they will need to register for the courses during the orientation.

4. Courses in English:

Please refer to the attached tentative English course list and indicate the names of the courses you would like to take at ZJU on the application. Please note that not all the courses on the list will be available each semester and the exchange students will be able to register for the courses only after the start of the new semester, during the orientation.

5. Research possibility

It is possible for exchange students to do research projects at ZJU instead of taking courses. In this case, the students should provide a detailed research plan on the application.

6. Language courses:

ZJU offers free courses on Chinese language and culture on different levels for exchange students. The students who plan to take the language courses will have to take a Chinese language proficiency test during the orientation so that they could be placed in classes that suit them best. Exchange students may take the language courses besides their major courses or research work, or take the language courses alone.

Please note that the Chinese language and culture courses are always taught on Yuquan campus while the major courses are taught on different campuses including Yuquan campus; besides, the schedule of the language courses may be overlapped with the schedule of the majors courses, so it's up to the students themselves whether they would like to take the language courses or not during their stay at ZJU. The final decision of the students could be made during the orientation.

7. Credit system:

Full-degree undergraduate students at ZJU are required to get a minimum of 15 credits per semester and a total of 169 credits during their 4-5 years study program.

Full-degree graduate students at ZJU are required to get a total of 26 credits during their 2-2.5 years study program.

Full-degree PhD students at ZJU are required to get a total of 14 credits during their 3-3.5 years study program.

1 credit at ZJU is equivalent to 16 teaching hours.

Currently we do not have any credit requirements for exchange students. The transcripts for exchange students will be offered at the end of each semester.

8. Language requirements:

We do not require any English or Chinese language certificates at the moment. However, a very good command of English is required.

If the students want to take the courses taught in Chinese in the fields of liberal arts and law, they should have the Chinese language proficiency equivalent to grade 5 in the old version of HSK or score 210 in new HSK grade 4 or above; applicants to other programs in Chinese must have the Chinese language proficiency equivalent to grade 4 in the old version of HSK or score 190 in new HSK grade 4 or above.

9. Number of exchange students:

ZJU is ready to accept the maximum number of exchange students as indicated in the university exchange agreement.

10. Nationality of the exchange students:

We strongly advise our partner universities to nominate the non-Chinese students for exchange at ZJU.
